Our annual, The Golden Bull, is a pictorial consummation of grand memories of the school year 1969-70. To some, it represents the totalness of a year spent at Johnson C. Smith University. To others it represents certain memorable situations never to be forgotten. Still to others, it represents periods of strife and achievements. Above all, it is the final product representing all Smithites, indicating a year well spent at Dear Ole Smith.

MISS JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY

Makela Shannon Maguerite Henry

1969 1970

Shannon's warmth, interest and genuine concern for people is seen in her involvement with the community as a recreational counselor at the First Presbyterian Church and with the SCA Big Brother and Big Sister Project. Her hobbies include interpretive dancing, Roller Skating and watching T.V.

Shannon, a junior elementary education major, is from Pontiac, Michigan. Besides being the official hostess of the University, she holds membership in the Student Christian Association, Community Relations Committee and Ron Davis Dancers. Shannon also writes articles for the University Student and has been selected to appear in the 1970 publication of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

An outspoken and frank Black young woman, she is sincerely concerned with other Blacks as can be seen in her activities in the Charlotte community and on campus.

Her enjoyment with children has led her to pursue a career in elementary education where she will be in constant contact with them.

Groove Phi Groove started at Johnson C. Smith University on October of 1967, has been on a definite move to the top.

The objectives of this organization are the (1) promotion of physical fitness and talent and (2) the true possession of brotherhood, not only within this organization but among fellowmen of the world.

In the area of physical fitness the Grooves have initiated groups of men carrying them through a definite program of fitness checked by advisors and many others. The Grooves have cooperated in many off-campus activities in the local high schools and YMCA's. Many are members of the new YMCA in Charlotte.

Their talents are wide. They are jacks-of-all trades with outstanding members on the football team, as Charles Stowe, drafted into the field of professional football by the Buffalo Bills; Willie Martin, Robert Johnson; Edgar Farmer, CIAA, drafted by the Oakland Raiders; Kenneth Latimore; Joseph Johnson, drafted by the Cinnacinti Bingals.

Outstanding members of the basketball team include Arthur "Crack" Davis and William Coles; track team. Ron G O G Wheeler, NIAA AND CIAA Penn-Relay Champion; Reginald Washington, CIAA, Joseph Johnson, CIAA.

The Grooves have also contributed much excitement here on campus through their dynamic block shows, their unique coronation held with the members of Alpha Phi Omega. This event was the first of its kind-ever-at Smith and stressed their point of total brotherhood among mankind. The Grooves have sponsored the Ron Davis Dancers in their campus show and have had a few drives for the needy in Charlotte.

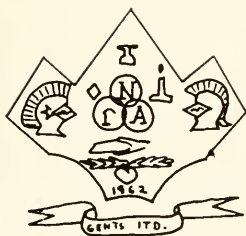

If YOU don't believe Groove is on the MOVE, check their past line of twenty-two (22) fine, the largest ever at Smith of frats. -R.W.

We, the brothers of Nu Gamma Alpha Inc. affirm our belief in the worth and dignity of man. We recognize the supreme importance of the pursuit of truth, the encouragement of scholarship and the promotion of true brotherhood. We affirm and accept our responsibility as brothers to the highest ethical standards. We measure success by the progress of each toward the achievement of his maximum potential. We therefore work to stimulate the acquisition of knowledge, understanding and thoughtful formulation of worthy goals.

Our activities for this consisted of fund raising for such organizations as the Physical Education Club, the Student Christian Association and the United Negro College Fund. We also participated in intramural games, and last but not least a lot of partying.

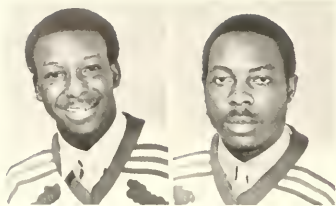

In our brotherhood are many distinguished men as: Ralph Knotts, Who's Who in American Colleges and Univ 1968-69; George Williams, all CIAA 1968-69 swimming champion and William Dusenberry, a football All American who has been drafted by the Houston Oilers in the Second Round. -R.K.

Alpha Phi Omega is a national service fraternity founded in 1925 and incorporated in the ideas of up-grading the standards of manhood. Its main objectives are to render service to the nation, campus and community. We strive hard to uphold our principles of Leadership, Friendship and Service and to make these principles a part of our every day lives. Outstanding service project to the nation was the carrying of the A.P.O. pen to the moon by Brother James Lovell. The community was enlightened by our aid to the orphans and poverty stricken children, and our helpful assistance on the campus earned us the title of "Boy Scouts of the Campus."

The most unique thing about Alpha Phi Omega is the fact that it renders service, an aspect that most social frats are now trying to achieve.

The greatest event this year was the extension of our brotherhood as exemplified by our joint coronation with the Grooves entitled "Together." Naturally we have unity among ourselves so we strive to show it to all.

Thus we must say that the Alpha Phi Omega National Service Fraternity is O-U-T O-F S-I-G-H-T.

Their vow "To climb the Highest Mountain" to achieve their goals and "To Swim the Deepest Ocean" to perpetuate their achievements characterizes the young ladies of the Gamma Delta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

Always stressing high scholastic standards, finer womanhood, and to be of service to all mankind, Gamma Delta with its sixty strong, loyal, and energetic sorors sponsors many worth-while service projects annually. Among the projects for this year were: a can-can dance which provided Thanksgiving repast for many needy families; contributions to the United Negro College Fund, Job Corps, and March of Dimes; sponsoring of an Easter Egg hunt for neighborhood children; in conjunction with the Garden Club, planting of a memorial garden for Martin Luther King, Jr.; serving as tutors for High Schools students; rendering service to elderly patients in the hospital; and working at the Charlotte Metrolina Fair in an effort to raise funds for an elementary school.

Moreover, full of vigor, vim, vitality, charm and personality, many of the Gamma Delta Girls can be cited for their outstanding achievements and contributions. Included in the list of campus leaders are: Joyce Hicks, Editor of the Bull; Alice Isaac, President of Sanders Hall Council; Elizabeth Thompson, President of the Philosophy Club; Juanita Dolson, President of the Off-Campus Women. Summer internship recipients were Elizabeth Thompson, Bessie Meeks, and Gloria Tiller at Yale and Washington University, respectively. Other fellowships and awards are: Shirley Squirewell, recipient of the Jefferson Standard Broadcasting Company Fellowship and VaCountess Johnson who received a District Certificate from John Larkin Pearson Contest. Bessie Meeks holds membership in the Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society.

Those honored as queens this year were: Linda Minter, Miss May Queen; Gloria Tiller, Miss Alpha Kappa Alpha; Ivy Metz, Miss Alpha Phi Alpha; Delores Walker, Miss Sphinx Club; Tommie Benson, Miss Off-Campus; Charlotte Walker, attendant to Miss Johnson C. Smith University; Juanita Reid, Miss Smith Hall; Betty Wideman, attendant to Miss Junior Class; and Miss Jacqueline Williams, attendant to Miss Sophomore Class.

Sorors listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities are: Juanita Dolson, Joyce Hicks, Bessie Meeks, Elizabeth Thompson, Gloria Tiller, and Shirley Squirewell.

Without a doubt, through their contributions and achievements, actions and deeds, the young ladies of Gamma Delta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority daily exhibit that "To Be an AKA" is indeed a valuable and rewarding experience.

Serving in the capacity of Graduate Advisors are Mrs. Hedy Brodie and Mrs. Willie A. Smith, and Mrs. Inez M. Parker as faculty advisor.

With pride in the past, faith in the present, hope for the future, the sorors of Gamma Delta continuously strive on "By Merit and by Culture" into a new era of service—always being guided by "the Glow of Twenty Pears".

"Finer Womanhood" is exemplified by the sorors of Zeta Phi Beta. They have shown this by contributing both manually and financially with their own donors to the United Negro College Fund, March of Dimes, and the Heart Fund Drive. For the beautification of our campus, Johnson C. Smith University, a plant was presented to Sanders Hall by them. Furthermore, Soror Lillie Randall is an active member of the Philosophy Club, Pan-Hellenic Council, the Placement Advisory Committee, designed to aid the placement directors and recruiters on campus. Soror Montgomery, being musically inclined, uses her talents in the University Choir. Soror Janet Bullock is President of Liston Hall Council and the Placement Advisory Committee. These sorors vow to continue being fine women on campus or wherever they are needed.

GAMMA LAMBDA CHAPTER

"MAGNAMMOUS" is the ideal quality of the sorors of the Gamma Lambda Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. These sorors gave magnificent service both to the university and the local community.

Keeping in tune with her purposes and goals Delta has sought diligently to improve social, moral, intellectual, spiritual and academical conditions through our rendering of public service. Some of our public service projects included the Toy Dance, Blood Donation to the American National Red Cross for which we received a plaque for the most participation, Tutorial Project and the Delta Carnival. Our social projects included the Omega-Delta Coronation, Delta Service Day in the university cafeteria and a fund raising dance.

In the "Delta Spotlight" of leadership, royalty, and scholarship many sorors were highlighted. The following sorors exhibited leadership ability in campus activities: Phyllis Waddell- President, Sociology Club, and Secretary, Sigma Rho Sigma Honor Society; Gloria Speaks- Chairman, T. C. Forum; Emily Green- Vice President, Off-Campus Women Association; Joan Pugh- President, SNEA; Bertha Burton- Director, R. W. Johnson, Spiritual Choir; Marcia Jacobs Associate Editor, The Golden Bull.

The following sorors were selected as campus queens: Dorothy Caldwell, attendant to Miss JSCU; Florence Simpkins, Miss Senior Class; Loretha Walker- Miss Junior Class; Gloria Orr, Miss Delta Sigma Theta; Sherian Davis, Miss Lampados Club; Yvette Brown, Miss Pyramid Club; Marcia Jacobs, Miss Sanders Hall; Jo-Ann Pugh, Miss SNEA.

The members of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority have had a wonderful year. The group of seven started the year off by giving a dance for the United Negro College Fund. Following that Sigma Gamma Rho sponsored a "Blue and Gold" Rush Party.

On February 8th, the Beta Omicron Sigma Chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority presented its annual Rhomania at the Ramada Inn in Charlotte, N.C. The theme was "Fly Me Through Spring", a spring fashion show. It is the annual scholarship rising project in which the members take an active part. Sigma hopes to have and is looking forward to a successful coming year.

ALPHA PHI ALPHA

ALPHA OMICRON CHAPTER

Alpha Omicron Chapter, of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., in attempting to fulfill the fraternity motto of "servants to all" has begun various activities to implement this end. Among these are dances sponsored for the Heart Fund Association, working with invalids, and shut-ins during Christmas and other special seasons.

On campus, AO chapter has sought to bring about Greek unity through its attitude of impartiality toward Greeks and non-Greeks alike.

When any institution of such magnitude performs well, personal contributions are inevitable. John Floyd president of the chapter, is an integral part of the campus mail service, as is Melvin Scott.

Leadership achievement includes Larry Martin, Lloyd Green and Hudson Barksdale named to Who's Who; Lloyd Green, Alpha Mu Honor Society; Hudson Barksdale, Sports Editor for the University Student; Van Stitt, President of Jr. Class and James Jeter, Student Government Representative for Junior Class.

AO chapter, as Alpha Phi Alpha in general, places more emphasis on quality, on worth than on quantity or numbers. Yet, open to all who would be "First of all, servants of all, we shall transcend them all."

ALPHA EPSILON CHAPTER

This is the dawning of the "Age of Kappa's." The youngmen who compose Alpha Epsilon Chapter are a jovial bunch of youngmen who possess unique personalities. They create a jovial atmosphere at all times. Everybody knows them on campus for their song "Got To Be A K-A-Ψ" but the essence of this group is more dynamic and far-reaching than catchy songs and dances.

The whole of Alpha Epsilon Chapter—its organizational structure, its motivation, its publications and its projections—is in keeping with the Fraternity's purpose of Achievement. From the chapter's beginning in 1927, achievement has meant progressive accomplishment in the personal group interest. Many brothers of the chapter have participated in campus activities, thus making honorable achievements.

Outstanding members of the group include: Parks Adams, Jr., member of Men's Interresidence Council; Daniel Bauldrick, vice-president Men's Off-Campus Organization; Curtis Branch, associate editor Golden Bull, president of Music Educators National Conference Chapter 341; Donald Littlejohn, member of the football team; Travis Saunders, member of University Council; Tourgee Simpson, director of Berry Hall and the Men's Interresidence Council; Grover Smith, captain of the football team, listed in Who's Who, President of Student Government.

Aside from personal achievement the chapter's program of events placed an emphasis on the academic and cultural atmosphere of the campus and the Charlotte community. Special events sponsored by the chapter this year included a Guide Right Program in cooperation with the Learning Academy (Huntersville, N.C.), a campus clean-up campaign, establishment of Kappa Alpha Psi Achievement awards in Scholarship, Athletics and Leadership to be awarded to members of the student body on a selective basis, financial contribution to the March of Dimes, and the presentation of a series of lectures on Black Culture.

"A.E." will make history this summer when they co-host the 56th Grand Conclave of Kappa Alpha Psi when it meets in Charlotte, August 12-15, 1970.

The grandeur of past years has proven and the future will continue to proclaim that the secrets of life . . . it's all in "ΦΝΠ".

The brothers of Rho Chapter are hard, conscientious workers, seeking to bring honor and recognition to their chapter as well as to fellow Smithites. Rho has sponsored many significant projects thus far this year. These include a $50 presentation to the city government of Fayette, Mississippi, an Afro-American dance, two benefit dances, for the UNCF, the establishment of a scholarship fund, and the sponsoring of the Red Cross Bloodmobile on campus. Upcoming events include the annual talent hunt program, the annual Psychedelic Dance; Sweetheart Ball; Omega Cabaret; and a benefit concert.

Rho Chapter combines quality with quantity. Among the outstanding members of the group are: Ted Allen, Lonnie Oliver, Melvin Pinn, and Vernon Ross, listed in Who's Who; Melvin Pinn, President of the Senior Class, president of the Pan-Hellenic Council, and a member of Alpha Kappa Mu

Phi Beta Sigma

The brothers of Alpha Epsilon Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity Inc., though small in number, have strived for progress and achievement beyond comparison. The University can witness how such a fraternity once quiet and almost unheard of, brought itself into great recognition and is still reaching for greater improvements. Our desire is not necessarily to have a large fraternity, but to have one that possesses the minds and characteristics of intelligent but well-rounded individuals. Known primarily for scholarship, we believe that other factors go into making a good individual.

Looking back into the past year, you can recall the fall line of 1969. There were only four but they knew the score. During this time, the guys really expressed themselves and proved that a lot of things go into the making of a "Sigma Man." Although we had not fully gotten on our feet, we participated in the March of Dimes and sponsored a car wash both of which were successful; other activities are scheduled.

We are proud to have two outstanding individuals who are mainly responsible for the reactivation of our fraternity; Clarence Braxton and Simon Broom. Braxton, who is also a member of the Choir is listed in Who's Who and Vice president of the Pan-Hellenic Council. Simon Broom is very active with the "Marching Golden Bulls." Serving as Chairman of the Social Committee of Myers Hall is Calvin Dixon.

As a final word, Phi Beta Sigma wishes to emphasize once again that quality should be a desire and a major factor and size should be a desire but a minor factor. We shall forever uphold the principles of our fraternity which are scholarship, brotherhood, and service. S.M.

CENTRAL INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION CHAMPIONS

It all started four (4) years ago when Head Coach Eddie C. McGirt recruited thirty (30) some odd athletes. He knew that from this fine crop of athletes he could build a football power house and win the conference championship. In order to do this first, he must keep his "boys" in school. This wasn't much of a challenge because several of them became Dean's List students. The first year Coach McGirt's inexperienced freshmen had a dismal season, 3-5-1. With the aid of a good spring practice and the return of Robert Wells, Edgar Farmer, Wiley Williams, and Coleman Tyrance, things began to brighten and McGirt look forward to a highly successful season.

The second year with the addition of freshmen Elroy Duncan; defensive end, Larry Jones and the tremendous improvement of running backs Thad Jones and William Dusenberry, linemen, Edward West, Paul Reed, Charles Stowe and Grover Smith and wide receiver Benny Johnson, only a 6-6 tie to A & T kept the Bulls from winning their first CIAA championship. A 6-2-1 record was good but not good enough. However, McGirt's idea of building a power house looked good as forty-eight (48) lettermen returned to try to bring the bacon home next year.

Many moons later, football season returned once again and the Bulls began training for another victorious season. After a brilliant "come back" victory over the golden Tigers of Tuskegee Institute and a disheartening loss to the Aggies of North Carolina A & T State University, the Bulls, for some odd reason or another, lost their spirit. They just showed up and played lackadaisical football for the remainder of the season. The 5-4 record for the highly rated Bulls was a "Nightmare".

Coach McGirt evaluated the past season and said, "You guys are a bunch of lazy pricks. You have lost all your pride and desire to play the game, you have the material to be the best team in the nation so you might as well come back prepared to work, and I mean that".

Many, many moons later, August 24, 1969 to be exact, 39 angry veterans returned with championship fever. With experience in every position, Coach McGirt immediately went to work. First he brought back an alumnus, Bill Davis, to coach the horses, the offensive linemen. His youthfulness, drive, and winning attitude were welcomed assets to the team. It was all over school, a desire to be someone, a desire to be a champ.

The under rated defense made itself known fast. The Front Five, John "Wild Man" Farley, Edgar Farmer, "Round Robin" Smith, Larry "Hookfoot" Jones, Robert "Boo" Johnson played every game as though it was the last. Occasionally, a back would slip through the line thinking that he was gone, but low and behold, a sturdy built middle linebacker named Willie "Clarence" Martin hit him as though he had stolen something. Each opposing offense feared that defense, because they knew that everytime they touched the ball, something terrible was going to happen to them.

The offensive machine was headed by none other than quarterback "Skinny Roy" Duncan. One scout defined the Bull offense as "The latest Collegiate Team in the Nation".

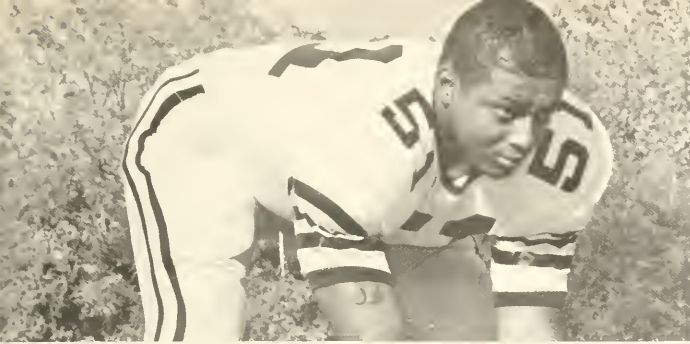

With turbo-jets such as 9.4 Benny Johnson, 9.5 Bernard Parker, 9.7 William Dusenberry, one can easily see how this-statement was made. Edward "Big Mae" West, Paul "Pablo" Reid, and Arthur "Roche" Hardy were all clocked better than 5.0 flat in the 40 yard dash, thus being able to pull a supply sufficiently down field blocking for the "astro-backs". The offensive line was so good that their quarterback was dumped less than three times a game.

The Virginia Union Panthers were the first to pay for the previous dismal season. The Line blocked, Duncan threw, Dawkins, Johnson and Parker caught, Dusenberry and Jones ran, the defense let fire to the Panthers, and McGirt coached.

Week after week after week, the "Herd" trampled over foe after foe. Gate receipts began to over flow as Homecoming crowd just couldn't believe what they saw. A catastrophe, The "Mighty Bulls" couldn't even muster a single score as the "Eagles" flew home victoriously. As the world caved in on them, all thought the championship was still but a year away; all except the team. A pep talk by Dr. Newson Sunday night lifted the Teams spirit, now they knew that "Ole Doc Newson" was still at their side.

Coach McGirt's team of veterans still had an outside chance. With the Dickerson rating still in effect, a victory over Fayetteville State and a defeat and a tie to North Carolina Central University would clinch the title to Johnson C. Smith University. As the season came to a close, Union beat North Carolina Central University and A & T fought them to a 28-28 tie. The "Ole Veterans," dejected and heart broken, pride got in their way as they barely got out of Fayetteville alive. With a keen interception return Willie Martin, two scrambling touchdowns by "Skinny Roy," some "I ancy-Dan" tumble recovery in the end zone by "Big West," and a game saving tackle by "Sweet Herb" Boyd, we were victorious 28-22.

As we live on, let us remember this quotation:
 "THE TRUE MARK OF A CHAMPION IS TO NOT WIN ALL THE TIME. BUT, AT LEAST A DEFEAT, GET UP AND WIN AGAIN."

Edward "Big Mac" West
Offensive Tackle Center

It's almost impossible to believe that as a freshman, Eddie was a frail six feet, 190 pound guard. He quickly developed into the finest center ever to play the game as a 6' 2", 220 pound center. However, a torn cartilage at mid season sidelined him for the remainder of the season. A car wreck that following summer further dampened his career. But sheer determination and a lot of weight lifting enabled him to return as a 6'3"-260 pound junior center. His senior year, Head Coach Eddie McGirt, who nicknamed him "The Wrecker," switched West to Tackle where he was drafted by the Pros.

Richard "Tic" Dawkins
Tight End

Good blocking was his game, sure-hands was his name. Known by his teammates as "Good Hair", Richard could always be counted on for first down yardage. He led the team in receptions his final season and was drafted by the Houston Oilers in the 11th Round.

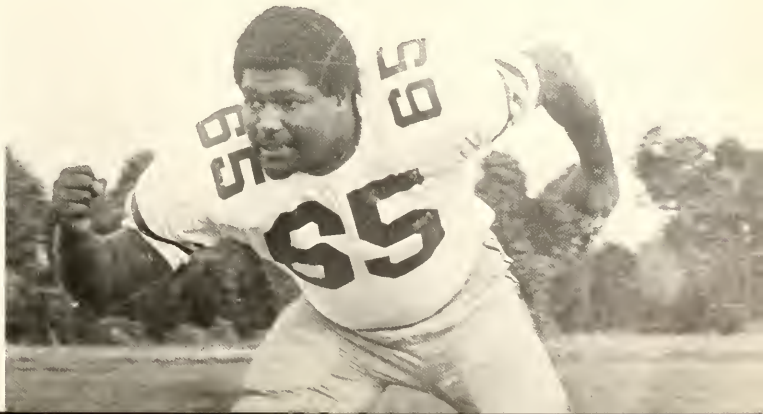

Paul "Pablo" Reid
Offensive Tackle

Better known as "Mr. Durable", Paul is the only player in modern day history of the "Golden Bulls" to start and play every game of his collegiate career. Neither injuries nor inconsistent play resulted in his being benched. Paul was an "ALL-CIAA" selection and co-captain and was drafted in the 4th round of the Atlanta Falcons.

Coleman "Big T" Tyrance
Guard

The mark of a champion is being able to step into a new position and play it like a veteran. Being a defensive specialist, his first three years at Smith, "Big T" was switched to offensive guard by Coach McGirt to strengthen his powerful line.

Grover "Smitty" Smith (73)
Middle Guard

Indescribably viscious Captain "Smitty" has made life miserable for the opposition during his four years as a middle guard. He has the quickness of a cat and gracefulness of a ballet dancer. His famous saying was, "These young boys are fools. You don't play football with muscles no more, you use your head". This saying, along with his consistent play and leadership, lead his teammates and coaches to call him "The OLE VETERAN."

Charles "Mule" Stowe (86)
Tight End and Linebacker Defensive Tackle

Tight End, Linebacker, Defensive Tackle and Offensive Tackle. "Chuck" played them all. Coach McGirt knew that he could depend on Stow. His versatilty lead him to being drafted to the Pros as a Free Agent.

Robert "Bobby Boo" Johnson (81)
Defensive End

Wrecking crew as a freshman, second team as a soph, Bob made himself known as a guard as a junior and a defensive end as a senior. His notorious play at end made opposing quarterbacks direct their attacks in some other direction.

Edgar "Big Red" Farmer (75)
Defensive Tackler

Probably the "meanest" looking athlete in the country, the bone crushing bruiser from Fayetteville, N. C., terrorized wisting teams so much that they wished they could have stayed home and played with the kittens. All-CIAA and NAIA for 2 years, along with being drafted as a Free Agent, Farmer is a sure bet to be All-Pro within the next 5 years.

Thaddeus "Big Albert" Jones (35)
Fullback

"It's Jones with the ball, he's hit on the 10 yard line. Wait-a-minute folks, he dragging the whole team. See him run, see him run to the end zone for the touch down." That a typical description of the action the fans have seen for the last three years. "Fat Albert" had the highest rushing average in the conference, very seldom was one man awarded the privilege of bringing Thad down by himself. His hard running and instinctive ability to follow his blocking labeled him as one of the top backs in the country.

Wylie "Choo Choo" Williams (32)
Halfback

Called "The Cuban" because of his resemblance to Castro, his home boy. "Choo-Choo" Williams was a very able-bodied substitute. He could be and was called upon at almost any time to replace any one of the first team running backs.

John "Crow" Sturgis (30)
Fullback

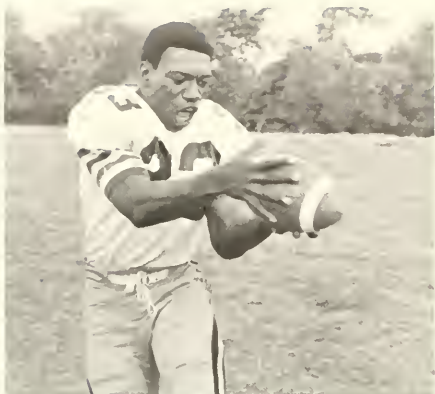

When told to run a lap around the track, Crow would say, "Charlie Cox, you must be crazy, I'm not a Spring Chicken any more". But when the whistle blew, the "Ole Black Crow" flapped his wings and flew around the track. His running style was very similar to Jones. Against Shaw, he came off the bench and ran 183 yards in 18 carries for 3 touchdowns.

William "Wild Bill" Dusenberry (27)
Halfback

All the rushing and scoring records of J.C. Smith now belong to "Mr. Football Man". "First Down Dusenberry", "Touch Down Dusenberry", "Pass caught by Dusenberry" these remarks were heard at almost every football game. He has received every honor capable of being given to a football player. His outstanding clutch play are the main reason for his being one of the top draft choices of the professional football league. Don't be surprised if you hear, "Rookie of the year is presented to ----".

Benny "Florida Flash" Johnson (33)
Flanker

The "frog" still rides with him from his freshman year because he was told by one of the upperclassmen that one day you will turn into a handsome prince, and we're still waiting. The fastest man on the team, Benny, could always be counted on to convert a long yardage situation into a first down. His "rabbit" like feet made him a scoring strike anywhere on the field. He was picked in the sixth round by Houston.

John "Rockhill Rocket" Parker (26)
Split-End

"Give me a ball and I'll kick it off the face of the earth." This coming from Parker doesn't sound impossible if you've seen him in action. There are few, if any, athletes in the nation who can outrun Parker for forty yards. His exceptional hands and tricky moves make him almost impossible to defend against. "Nard Lee" was drafted by the Pros as a free agent.

Nathaniel "Nat" Brown (87)
Split-End Flanker

Are you looking for a receiver? Be ye tight end, flanker, or split-end, with "fancy Dan" moves and magnetic hands, then "tippy-toe" Brown is your man. Coach McGirt was blessed with some one with the talents of Brown to use as a reserve. He was the most underrated receiver in the conference.

Andrew "Wee-Wee" Perry (40)
Corner-Back Lineman

Experience and a killer instinct enabled "Wee-Wee" to cover receivers much faster than he. The surest tackler on the team, his opponents usually hobbled off the field because of the way he stung them. His ability to bat down passes resulted in his being drafted as a free agent.

... IT ALL STARTED IN PRACTICE

The "Ole Devil's" taking a rest now fox.

I'm sick and tired of running around Coach.

Man I don't feel like running today.

The funny face award goes to . . .

"Ole Devil" almost ran us to death today.

Hey Reid, why don't you shut up, while Dean tells us the play!

Hey Boo. Smile!! They're getting ready to take pictures.

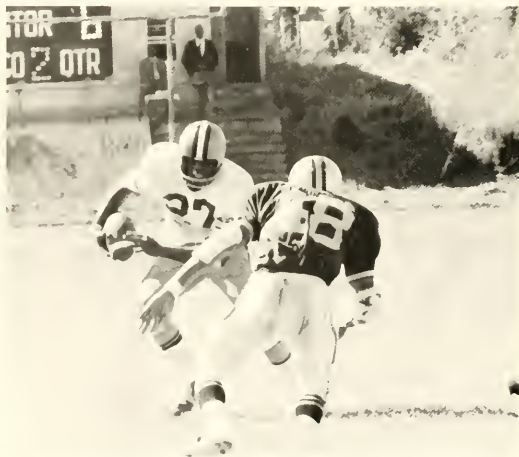

After four weeks of hard practice, the season finally started.

Ace quarterback Elroy Duncan sets up behind splendid blocking.

All-American Bill Dunsenberry utilizes hard blocking of All CIAA Paul Reid.

Duncan chats with the head mentor, Eddie C. McGirt

"Good Hair" Dawkins catches another.

A brilliant reception by Dawkins sets up another Bull Touchdown.

Don't touch me girl; I just scored a record breaking touch-down.

A tremendous fake by Duncan and good blocking in the line sets off another long gain.

Get off my back, little bear.

The "Black Crow" runs. Run Black Run.

The Old Black Crow scores again.

Your Honor, I'm innocent!

Hey Larry, You'd better not mess up everybody's watching.

Even Dusenberry couldn't get loose.

Homecoming, Blah!

We just can't do nothing right today.

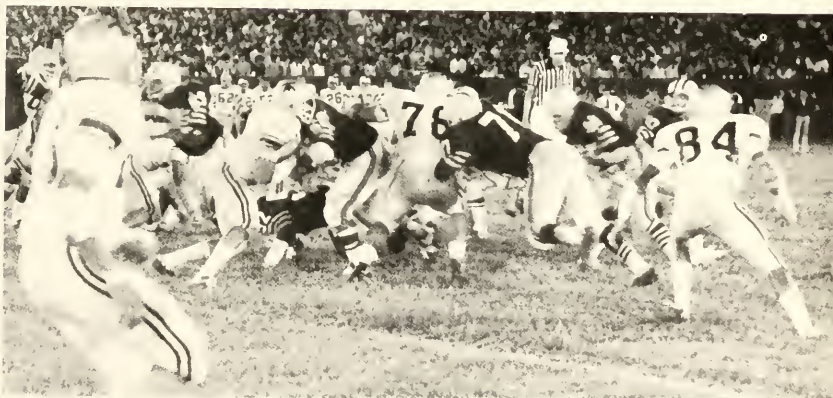

The profile of a Champ.

"If you don't drop the ball, I'll snatch you out of the air."

Hey, Big West, the next time we go on the field, let's make some mud-pies.

As the line blocks, "Wild Bill" runs on.

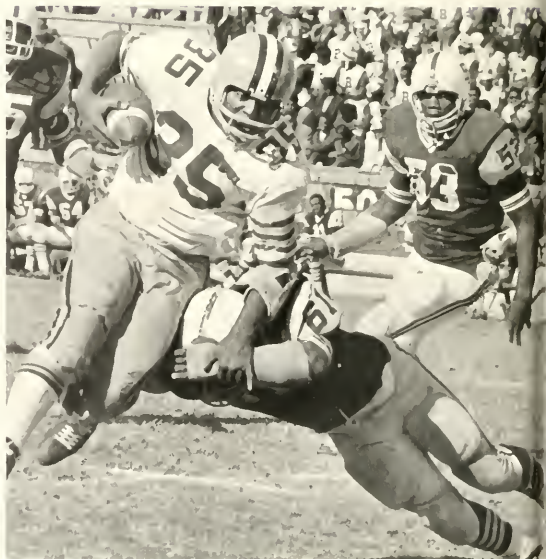

Smitty, THE ROUND ROBBIN, Goes to retrieve the ball.

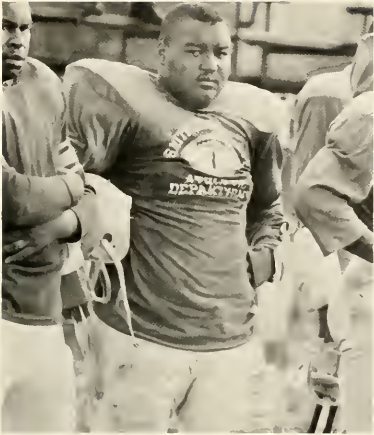

"Dreamer Eyes"

They must have put grease on the ball today.

"Hey!! Hey! It's fat Albert."

I look pretty mean don't I?

It's exercise time once again.

Hey!! Logan, head'em off at the pass.

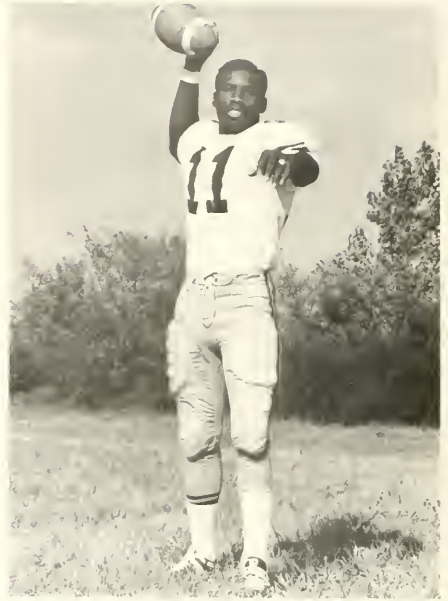

How'd you like this pose?

The
All-Mighty
Defense

The fellows insist that I am a "Pig," but pigs don't play football.

Donald Federick Littlejohn better known as "Mr. Football" poses as "Hercules."

Look-out, the "Ole Black Crows" scored again.

Analyze me closely, do I look like the "Devil."

Hey, Mr. Official, why you like that?

Touchdown Dusenberry

"If you fellows just excuse me, I'll catch this ball and go on about my business."

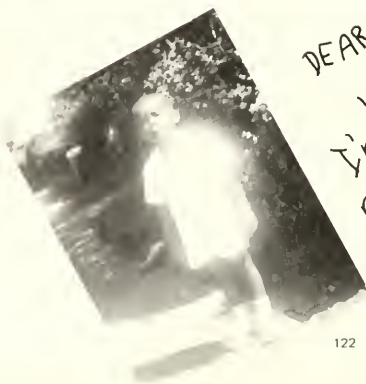

Okay, you guys, I'm in charge of practice today.

Come here and let me hug you.

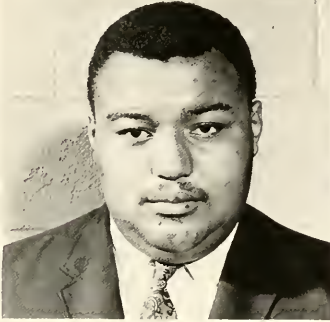

Slip away Dusenberry.

DEAR DAISSY,
 When I grow up,
 I'm going to play

Is this the way you do it coach?

Action was fast and furious in the S.C. State Game.

Do your thing, Duse.

Miss Shannon Henry—Our most Loyal fan, she came to watch us practice everyday

I'm not really a wolf-man,
I just look like one.

Good blocking in the line.

Hurry up and throw the ball so I can score.

At last, it was all over. Some of us will get Married and go to graduate school while the others will be going to professional football teams. At any rate we're proud to say that "WE PLAYED ON THE GREATEST TEAM IN THE HISTORY OF THE SCHOOL."

Joe Alston, Head Tennis Coach, appointed to lead "The Five Blind Boys."

With coach Alston, the assistant now the Head, our Basketball outlook is great. With the loss of only 3 seniors and 4 outstanding freshmen, the Bulls are looking forward to a winning season. A little change of strategy, run and shot, we are expected to give the front running teams a tremendous scare.

Height, speed, good rebounding and shooting are our greatest assets. As the season progresses, so will the exciting Bulls. Already we have had five turn-a-way crowds. With six games remaining, we still have a good chance for a tournament bid.

Just like coach McGirt, Joe Alston is building a basketball power house. With Co-Captains: Wilton Enoche, and Mike Turner, Derrick Reese is the only other senior on the squad. "ALL POWER TO THE GOLDEN BULL BASKETBALL TEAM."

Michael Turner, Senior, Co-Captain

Wilton Enoch, Senior Co-Captain

Starting— Lineup
 Clockwise: Joyner, Bradshaw, Davis, Coles, and Butts

Patented layout by Mike Turner.

Coles, you tell them I say let you shoot your 95.682 foot jumper.

Senior Derrick Reese lets it fly for 2 points.

Freshman Cecil Bradshaw in for a basket.

Smile you're on Candid Camera.

Freshman Steve Joyner displays some fancy dribbling.

"Crack" Davis with the ball. He's up 2 points. GOOD.

Hey, Big Boy, I faked you that time.

"No matter how hard you try you can't stop me now..." By Mike Turner, from Broadway.

Look up in the sky. It's a bird, it's a plane, no it's Arthur Davis.

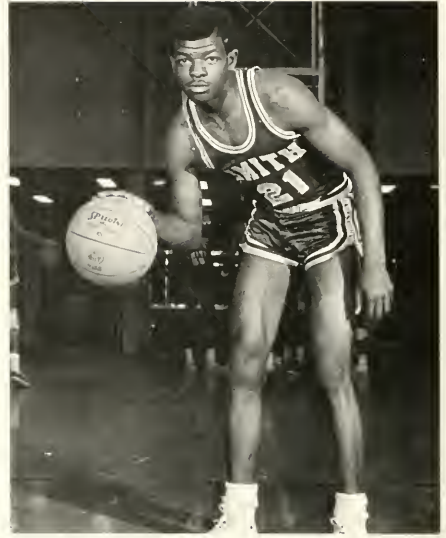

Shot blocked by none other than Big Jim White.

Bob Butts teams' leading scorer and rebounder and world's strongest man.

William Coles the most torrid outside shooter on the east coast.

Ah, the "Golden Bulls" got a new sports coat so what. Now you got two.

Strong Man Butts is at it again.

THE AQA BULLS

L-R. Albert Jordan, Jimmy Ewers, Sandford Howard, Lonnie Oliver, Melvin Pinn, Jeffrey Banks.

The Golden Racket Bulls became the first Black athletic team to win the district 6 NAIA Championship last May.

The Golden Bulls, sparked by the usual fantastic play of James "Yap" Ewers, were credited with 28 points, 9 points ahead of the next team, Pfeiffer College, the host for the tournament.

After suffering an earlier heart-breaking loss of the CIAA Championship to Hampton Institute by 2 points, the Bulls were anxious to prove themselves.

In the quarter-finals, the Bulls placed Jeffrey Banks, junior, Newport News, Va., the teams number one point gainer for last year; Lonnie Oliver, senior from Hampton, Va.; Melvin Pinn, senior from Lynchburg, Va.; Albert Jordan, senior from Winston-Salem; and as usual Jimmy Ewers, senior from Winston-Salem, who shocked the entire tournament by walking away with the Singles Championship.

Winning is not an unusual thing for "Yap" Ewers. He is Smith's record-holder of 34 consecutive wins.

The only underclassman, last year Jeff compiled the best record in the squad 15-2. The Newport News native won his Flight No. 3 in the championships.

Melvin T. Pinn, No. 1 for the past three (3) years.

Poem To THE SENIOR CLASS

1969-1970

In the pathway of life,
You stand, young men and women,
Boarding the rocket to trials and strife.
Depart you must; Follow your path;
Swiftly onward - to reach your goal!

Ascending the steps of the ladder of success;
You have entered the spotlight . . .
Play well your part!
You have been and shall continue to be
Fearless fighters of black and white
Infinitely moving- to reach your goal!

When you shall walk in the broadway of life,
Encumbering the trifles; Mastering the deceptions;
When you shall approach the threshold of success-
Look up! Look forward! Strive on!
For you are about to become the
Men and Women of the Hour.

MEMORIAL TO . . .

LARRY CALVIN INGRAM

Larry Ingram was born February 7, 1949. He was the eldest of four (4) children of Mr. and Mrs. James Ingram of New Haven, Connecticut. However, he spent the majority of his home life with his grandmother, Mrs. Bessie Ingram. He attended elementary and junior high schools at Highland School and graduated from Peabody High in Troy, North Carolina. He participated in the band, varsity basketball, and student affairs. He was an active member of the Providence Baptist Church and also participated in many civic affairs. Larry came to Smith in 1966, where he was a music major. He held membership in the Johnson C. Smith band, and the Lampados Club of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. He enjoyed playing basketball and the saxophone.

He was a warm-hearted and understanding person with a smile for all. He enjoyed the company and shared the interests of all. Some classmates who lived in the same dormitory with Larry remember him getting up every morning at 7:00 o'clock and going to breakfast. Others knew him as a person who enjoyed listening to music and had the latest records. Still others remember him as "A nice person to talk to, a real nice guy".

Larry died May 21, 1969 in a car accident near Concord, North Carolina.

However, Larry is not dead to us the graduating class of 1970 but is a living graduating member in our minds and memories of the past four years. Thus we DEDICATE THIS BOOK AND MEMORIES TO YOU, LARRY, OUR "REAL NICE GUY".

THE SENIOR CLASS

MISS SENIOR CLASS

FLORENCE R. SIMPKINS

1969- 1970

This Black beauty was chosen to represent the Senior Class as its queen. Florence, a native of Arken, South Carolina, has a number of hobbies; among them knitting, listening to records and playing tennis. She is actively involved in cooperative campus community activities. With a major in marketing, Florence plans to enter into a business career with hopes of owning and operating her own business. She is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. Florence, the Senior Class is happy you have honored us by being our queen. Each and every Senior respects and admires your charm, grace, intellect and beauty.
